ABOUT GRAD RESOURCES

Grad Resources is a faith-based service organization addressing the personal, emotional, and spiritual needs of 3.25 million graduate students across America. For 35 years, we have served all graduate students freely and unconditionally through a comprehensive portfolio of partnerships and resources, including life-skills talks, online tools, events, and seminars. We also support graduate students, faculty, and their families by connecting scholars to Christian Graduate Fellowships on their campuses, creating space to explore the intersection of faith, scholarly work, careers, and family.
